New York, N. Y. 10021

Re: United States v. Roy M. Cohn, John A.
Kiser, John F. Curtin, Bernard Reicher
69 Cr. 55

Dear Mr. Malone:

The Court in the above captioned case has ordered the Government to make available to defendants Roy M. Cohn, John A. Kiser and John F. Curtin copies of all "statements" and "confessions" of said defendants.

The Court has defined "statements" and "confessions" to include:

"any writing signed by ... [defendant] and any record made in writing or by any electric, electronic, mechanical, photographic or other means, of any words uttered by him; 'statements' and 'confessions' do not include any analysis, interpretation, summary, impression, or paraphrase made by government agents of words uttered by defendant; 'statements' and 'confessions' do not include 'reports, memoranda, or other internal government documents' ... except such parts thereof as purport to reproduce the exact words used by defendant ..."

NY POST TUESDAY 6/24/69

Cohn Denies Role in Transfer Of 3 FBI Agents in Probe

Attorney Roy M. Cohn vehemently denied today that he had anything to do with the transfer of three FBI agents after they gave affidavits for the government in the bribe conspiracy case against him.

The agents had sworn that ex-convict Milton Pollack lied in his affidavit when he charged that U. S. Attorney Morgenthau asked Pollack to use electronic devices to get evidence against Cohn.

Cohn, former counsel to the Senate subcommittee headed by the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy, had presented Pollack's affidavit to Federal Judge Inzer B. Wyatt in an attempt to have the case thrown out.

Cohn had accused Morgenthau of conducting a "vendetta" against him but Wyatt denied all his motions earlier this month, setting Sept. 23 for the trial.

The three agents were transferred soon after their affidavits were filed. An article written by Peter Maas for New York magazine implied that the transfers resulted from Cohn's friendship with J. Edgar Hoover.

The financier and lawyer, whose troubles stemmed from the affairs of the Fifth Av. Coach Lines, termed that angle "pure baloney."

"The first time I heard of the whole thing was when it was printed," he said. "I never spoke to anyone about it."

The FBI and Morgenthau refused any comment after Wyatt ordered all those connected with the case to refrain from discussing it.

FBI Regulations

However, sources within the bureau indicated that the agents were transferred because they had violated FBI regulations requiring that all affidavits be cleared with the FBI in Washington before being filed.

Cohn, 41, and three other men were indicted in January on six counts of bribery, extortion, blackmail and conspiracy in connection with the city's takeover of the Fifth Av. Coach Lines' bus routes.

Cohn was a director of the company and his law firm represented it during that period.

Cohn also is under federal indictment charging conspiracy, mail and wire fraud, security violations and an alleged $75,000 bribery plot of a state court official.
